5. Settlement and Integration

- A. Employers must ensure each FN Principal Applicant and their accompanying family member(s) receives a comprehensive pre-endorsement needs assessment that includes customized information and service referrals.

The pre-endorsement needs assessment is to be completed by a federally – or provincially-funded immigrant settlement service provider organization (from the list attached) and must thoroughly assess and make appropriate referrals, where applicable, for at least the following types of settlement needs:

- Information and Orientation to Life in Canada
- Housing
- Education
- Health Care
- Financial Services
- Language – Evaluation and Learning to CLB 5 or equivalent
- Employment Counselling and Career Development Support
- Connection to Community Services and Recreation
- Connection to Ethno-cultural and/or Faith-based Associations
- Support Services to access Settlement Supports: Childcare; Interpretation and Translation; Transportation; Crisis Counselling; Provision for Disabilities

NOTE: In certain cases, the pre-endorsement needs assessment may determine that the FN Principal Applicant and his/her spouse and dependents, may not be in need of any of the above referrals; where such a determination has been made through the pre-endorsement needs assessment, employers may not be responsible for the above referrals. In particular, this could be the case for foreign nationals who have already been working and living in the province, and have already become sufficiently established to not require any of the above.

Information deemed sensitive by either the immigrant settlement service provider organization or the FN will be removed from the version of the pre-endorsement needs assessment provided to third-party organizations (i.e., employers, provincial/federal government).

- B. Employers, where applicable, must commit to supporting each FN Principal Applicant's and their accompanying family member(s)' access to the services identified in their respective individualized settlement plans. Where necessary, the employer's obligation will include providing or paying for services that are not otherwise available to the FN Principal Applicant and their family member(s).

NOTE: Individual settlement plans may be adjusted based on additional dialogue between an immigrant settlement service provider organization and the FN following a possible post-arrival needs assessment.

In addition to the above, employers are expected to provide the following settlement supports, as necessary:

- C. Housing: Employers will ensure that the Principal Applicant and their accompanying family member(s) find suitable housing.
- D. Transportation: Employers will provide transportation assistance to the Principal Applicant and their accompanying family member(s) to support their transition into their new community and help them access settlement services. The employer may be required to pay for transportation services.
- E. Language: Employers will promote and encourage access to official language assessment and training for the Principal Applicant and their accompanying family member(s).

In addition, for every Principal Applicant whose first language is neither English nor French and whose first official language ability is lower than the Canadian Language Benchmark (CLB) 5 or equivalent in any of the four skills (i.e., listening, speaking, reading and writing), employers must help ensure that, starting within the first three months after landing in Canada under the Pilot, language training support is made available to the newcomer employee. The minimum number of hours of language training support required is 300 or until the newcomer employee can demonstrate that s/he has obtained CLB 5 across the four competencies (i.e., listening, speaking, reading and writing), whichever is less. The employer may be required to provide release time for, facilitate access to, and/or provide or pay for any of the following, as indicated by the settlement plan:

- Language assessment
- Language training classes on or off the worksite
- Federally or provincially-funded language training, such as Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada's (IRCC) Language Instruction for Newcomers to Canada (LINC) / Cours de langue pour les immigrants au Canada (CLIC)
